Proper Care of ATL Security Badge

Below are a few tips to consider regarding the proper care of your ATL security badge:

- Be careful not to bend your badge.
- Do not leave your badge exposed to direct sunlight or heat.
- Do not cover or conceal any information on your badge.
- You are not allowed to alter the badge under any circumstances.
- Maintain control of your badge at all times and do not leave it where it can be misplaced or stolen.

Consequences for non-compliance:

- Employer and/or employees are responsible for all costs associated with damaged badges.
- Badges that are expired, broken, or faded are subject to confiscation.

Remember, security is everybody’s business!

The Department of Aviation, Security Division is responsible for managing an effective airport security program that ensures a safe and secure environment at the world’s busiest airport while exceeding customers’ expectations and complying with applicable regulations, laws, and codes.

If you have any questions, please contact the Security Division via email at SecurityID@Atlanta-Airport.com.

We thank you in advance for your continued support of the Airport Security Program.
