Statement from Hartsfield-Jackson on Brussels Attacks

ATLANTA- Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport offers heartfelt condolences to the families and loved ones of the victims of today's horrific attacks in Brussels, and to our colleagues at Brussels Airport.

In light of these attacks, the airport remains on heightened alert and will continue to coordinate with federal, state, and city law enforcement. Safety and security are always a constant focus at Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport.

NOTE TO EDITORS:

Travelers should check with their airlines directly to find out if their flight has been affected by this incident.

Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport

Hartsfield-Jackson (ATL) is the world's busiest and most efficient airport, serving more than 101 million passengers annually with nonstop service to more than 150 U.S. destinations and nearly 70 international destinations in more than 45 countries. ATL boasts a direct economic impact of $34.8 billion in metro Atlanta and a total direct economic impact of $70.9 billion in Georgia. The Airport is the largest employer in Georgia, with more than 63,000 employees. The Airport is a frequent recipient of awards of excellence for concessions, operations, architectural engineering and construction – including the 2013 Global Efficiency Excellence Award from the Air Transport Research Society, 2013 Project of the Year, Architectural Category for the Maynard H. Jackson Jr. International Terminal from the American Association of Airport Executives Southeast chapter and the 2012 Best Airport in North America, Business Travel Award from the Business Traveler Magazine. ATL has completed more than $6 billion worth of capital improvements, including a new, energy-efficient rental car center, a gold LEED-certified international terminal and aesthetic and functional upgrades to its concourses, people movers and parking services.
