Area Schoolchildren Celebrate Holidays With Help From ATL
“ATL Presents: Toyland” celebration to host 500 students

ATLANTA – Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport (ATL) officials will host “ATL Presents: Toyland,” a celebration of the holiday season for Airport-area schoolchildren Wednesday, Dec. 6. This year marks the 21st year ATL has hosted a holiday event for students in schools neighboring the Airport.

More than 500 first-graders will participate in a daylong program that features a magic show, a puppeteer, clowns, well-known children’s characters and a surprise visit from a certain red-clad, bearded gentlemen offering gifts.

The students will also hear from ATL executives explaining the role the Airport plays in the transportation industry. ATL partners and concessionaires will provide food and gifts to the students during the event, which, having grown in popularity, will take place at the Delta Flight Museum for the second consecutive year.

WHO: Greg Richardson, Interim Deputy General Manager and Chief Financial Officer, Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport

WHAT: “ATL Presents: Toyland” – a holiday celebration for more than 500 Airport-area first-graders

Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport

Hartsfield-Jackson (ATL) is the world’s busiest and most efficient airport, serving more than 104 million passengers annually with nonstop service to more than 150 U.S. destinations and 70 international destinations in more than 50 countries. ATL boasts a direct economic impact of $34.8 billion in metro Atlanta and a total direct economic impact of $70.9 billion in Georgia. The Airport is the largest employer in Georgia, with more than 63,000 employees. The Airport is a frequent recipient of awards of excellence for concessions, operations, sustainability, architectural engineering, and construction. ATL is now in the midst of a $6 billion capital improvement program, ATLNext, that will modernize the Domestic Terminal and concourses, create new parking decks, construct a 440-room hotel, Class A commercial office space, add a new runway, new concourse and expand cargo facilities.
